Terms of Reference of the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee

1. Establishment

During a meeting of the board of directors (the “Board”) of COSCO SHIPPING Ports Limited (the “Company”) held on 30 March 2021, an Environmental, Social and Governance Committee (the “Committee”) was approved to be established under the Board.

2. Objectives

The Committee, under the supervision of the Board, is responsible for introducing and proposing relevant principles concerning corporate governance so as to enhance the standard of corporate governance of the Company. The Committee is also responsible for opining on, overseeing, evaluating, and making recommendations to the Board on the development and implementation of corporate social responsibility and sustainable development measures by the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”).

3. Composition

- 3.1 The Committee shall consist of three members, comprising two independent non-executive directors and an executive director, who shall be appointed by the Board.
- 3.2 The Chairman of the Committee shall be an independent non-executive director appointed by the Board.
- 3.3 The office of a Committee member shall last as long as he/she remains as a director of the Company. In the event of resignation of any member or automatic disqualification of any member upon his/her resignation as a director, a new member shall be elected by the Board in accordance with Article 3.1 above and if applicable, a new Chairman shall be appointed in accordance with Article 3.2 above.

3.4 The Secretary of the Committee shall be the head of the Investor Relations Department of the Company. The Secretary of the Committee shall be responsible for despatching notice of meeting to the members of the Committee, taking minutes at the meetings, circulating the minutes to the members present at the meetings for signature, keeping the minutes thereof for records and copying the minutes to the Company Secretary.

4. Meetings

4.1 Two members shall constitute a quorum of a Committee meeting. Each member shall have one vote. Any resolution of any Committee meeting shall require a majority of votes of the members present at the meeting.

4.2 The Committee shall meet at least two times every year. Seven days' notice shall be given to the Committee members before each meeting. Meetings may be held at the request of the Chairman or at least half of the Committee members as and when required. Meetings may be held by way of voting by correspondence or signing of written resolutions by all Committee members.

4.3 All meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman of the Committee. In the event of his/her absence, he/she may assign another member to chair the meeting on his/her behalf.

4.4 Agenda of any Committee meeting and accompanying meeting papers shall be sent to all Committee members 3 days before the intended date of the meeting (or such other date as agreed).

4.5 With respect to an agenda that relates to any Committee member, such member shall abstain from voting on the corresponding resolution.

4.6 Minutes of Committee meetings shall record in sufficient detail the matters considered by the Committee and decisions reached, including any concerns raised or dissenting views expressed by members. Drafts and final version of the minutes of Committee meetings shall be sent to all Committee members for amendments and records respectively, in both cases within a reasonable time after a Committee meeting is held.

4.7 The members of the Committee shall have the obligation to keep all matters discussed by the Committee confidential and shall not disclose such information to third parties without the Committee's permission.

4.8 Only Committee members are entitled to attend Committee meetings. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Chairman of the Committee may, as appropriate, invite other Board members, senior management members or heads of relevant departments to attend Committee meetings. External advisers may also be invited to attend Committee meetings as and when required.

5. Authority

5.1 The Committee is authorised by the Board to investigate any activities within the scope of its terms of reference and obtain any information required from relevant parties to facilitate its understanding of the issue.

5.2 The Company shall provide sufficient resources to the Committee for the Committee to perform its duties. The Committee, in performing its duties, shall seek independent professional opinions, as and when required, at the cost of the Company.
